

Covenant of Dedication

Minister to parents: Do you recognize your child as a gift of God's good creation, and give sincere and heartfelt thanks for God's blessings?

Parents: We do.

Congregation: Thanks be to God for children.

Minister to parents: Do you desire that your child shall grow up in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord," and do you covenant to offer your child through the Scriptures and principles of faith a loving and obedient reverence for God and His Son, Jesus Christ?

Parents: We do.

Congregation: We promise to help you with this responsibility.

Minister to parents: And do you dedicate yourselves to Christ and His Church, to live in such a way as to commend the Lord to your child always?

Parents: We do.

Congregation: We will join you in providing a Christ-like example.

Pastor: As parents and congregation, do you promise that by giving of your time, talents, and money you will do your part in helping to provide spiritual instruction and Christian training for all children, that they may, when they reach an age of understanding, freely choose to accept God's gift of salvation, trust Christ as Savior, and follow Him as Lord? And that you will continue to nurture them in the Christian faith as long as they and you are related to one another through this congregation?

Congregation and Parents: We so promise.

Pastor: Let us ask God's blessing upon the covenant we have made with each other, under Him.
